

Harnessing Canada's Investment in Nanotechnology Through Collaboration

Dr. Marie D'Iorio
President of NanoCanada

Canadian Landscape

Canadian Nano Hubs

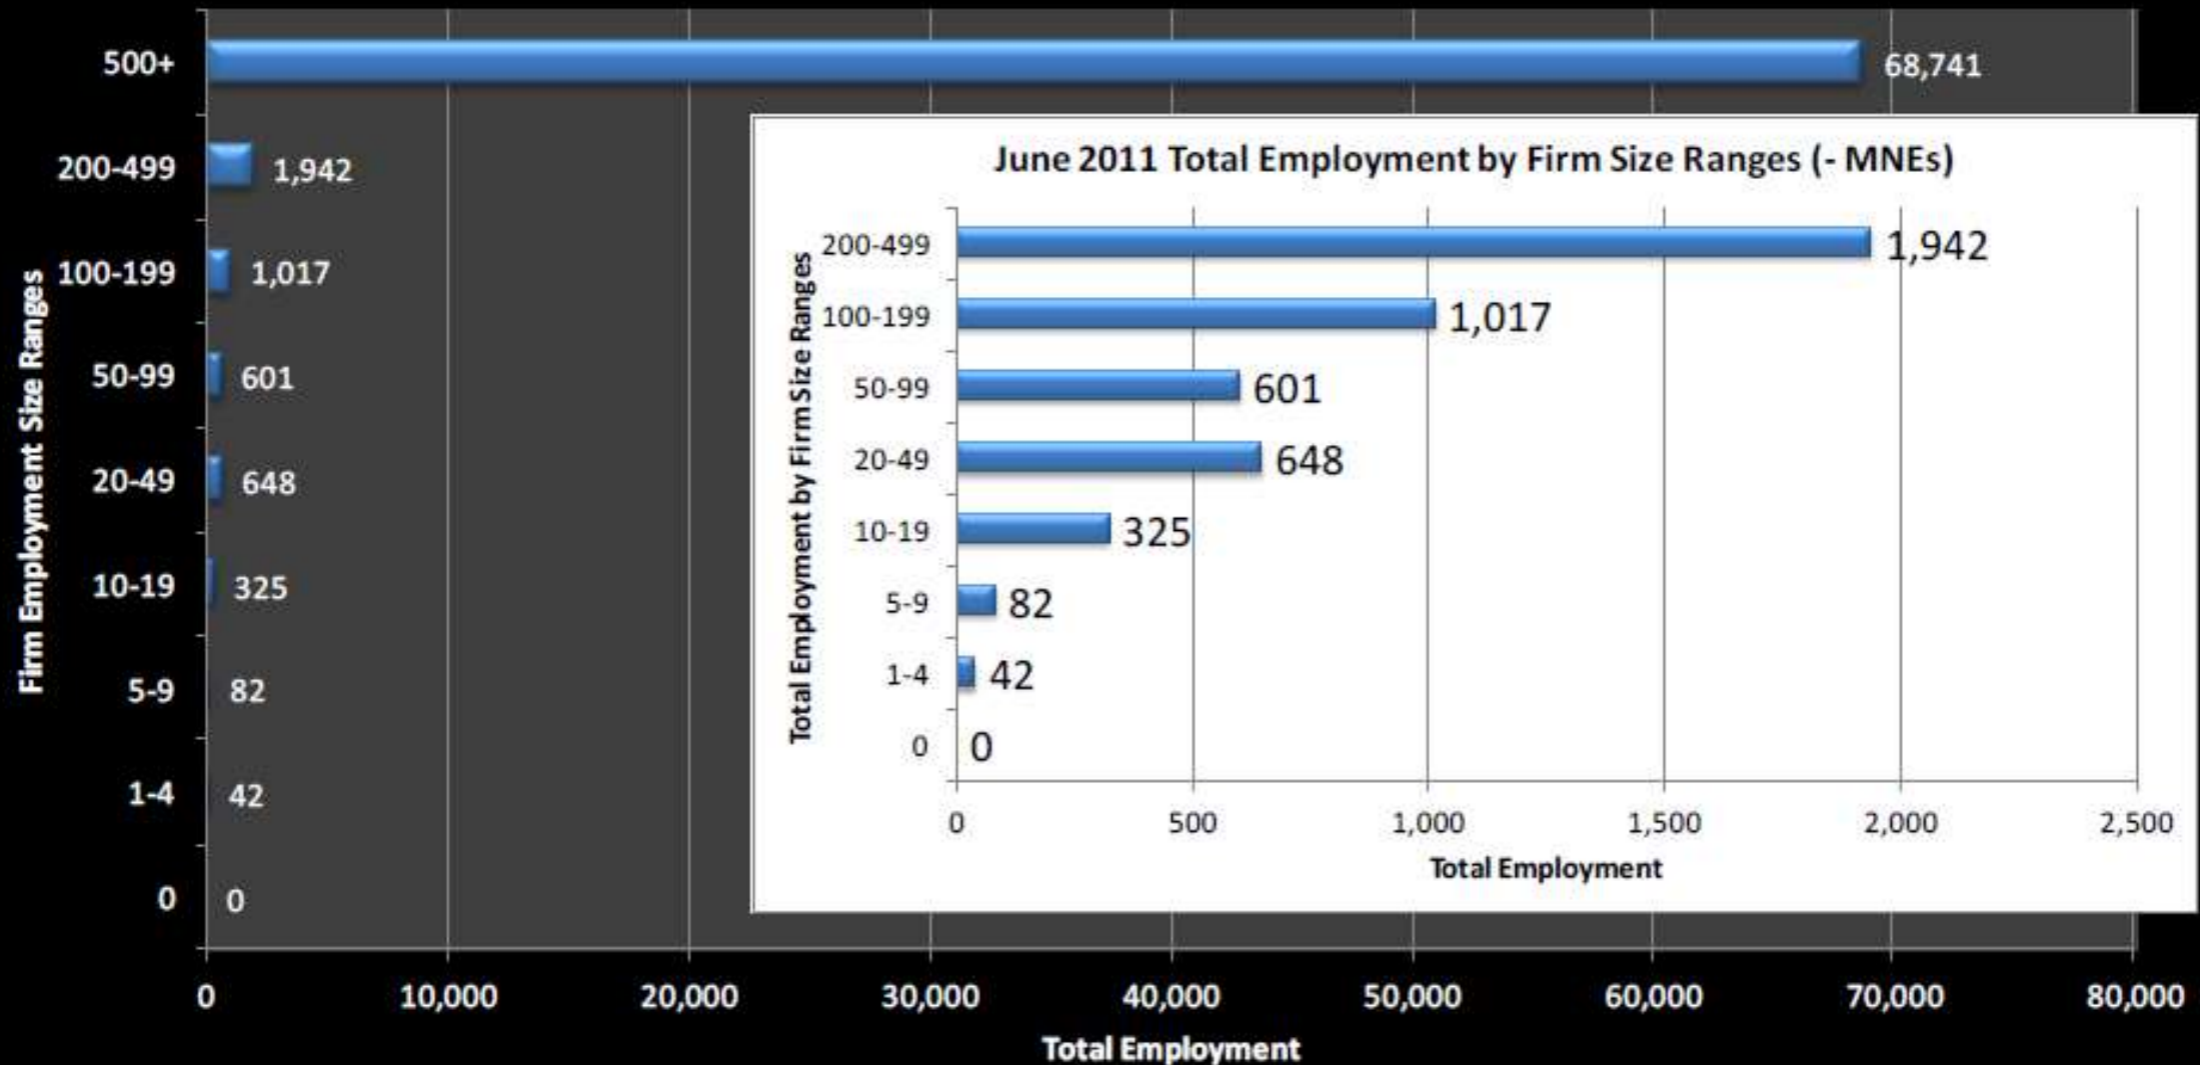

Nano BC
NanoCluster Alberta
Canadian Light Source
Nano Ontario
Prima Quebec
Nano Atlantic

Employment

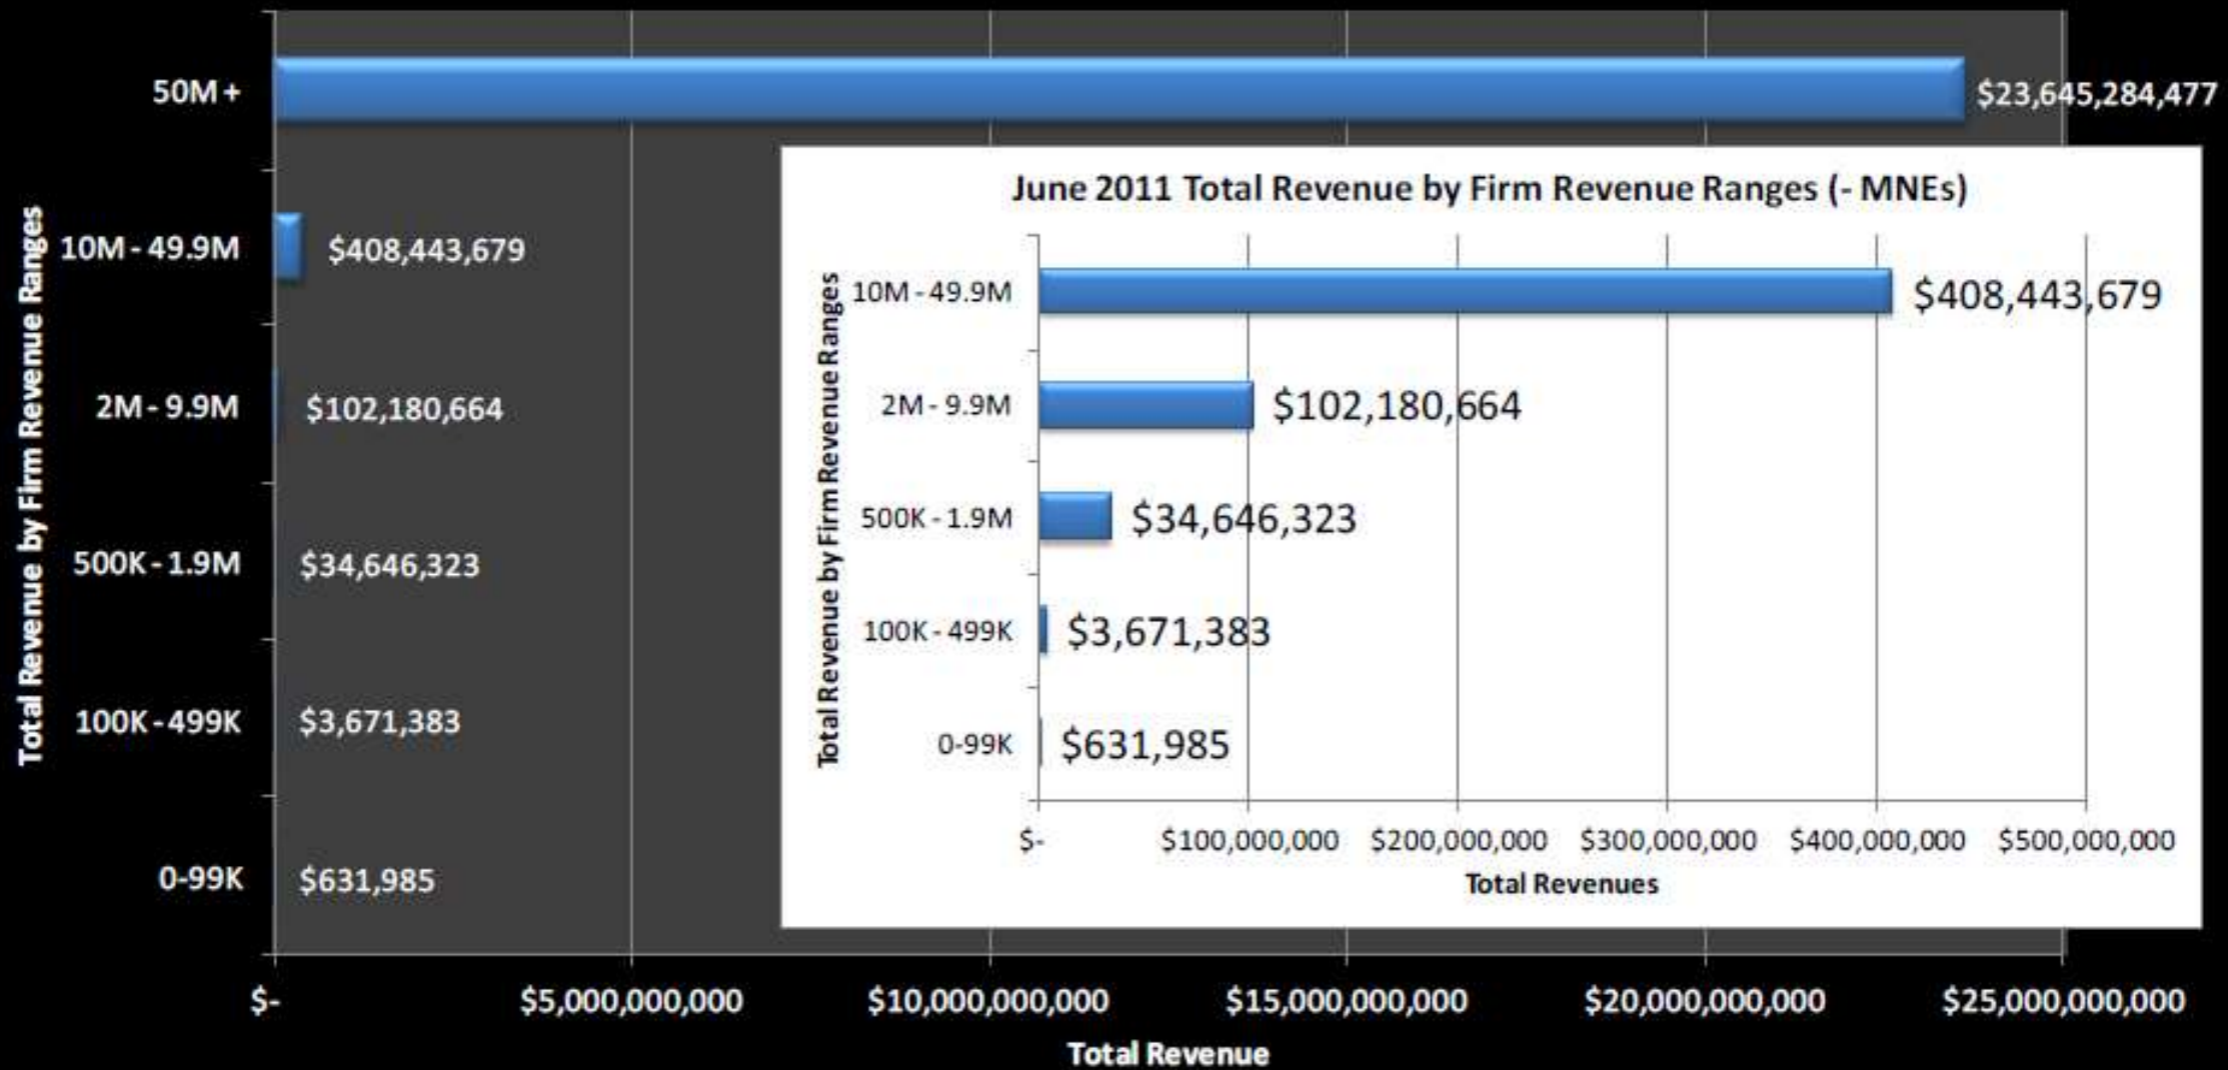

June 2011 Total Employment by Firm Size Ranges

NanoCanada

Revenue

June 2011 Total Revenue by Firm Revenue Ranges

NanoCanada

NanoCanada's Vision

Building Canadian
competitiveness and prosperity
through nanotechnology

NanoCanada's Value Creation

Connecting, Facilitating, Investing

Tracking and Measuring Nanotechnology's Impact

Informing and Influencing Safe Deployment of Nanotechnologies

Quadruple Helix Innovation

Activities

Outcomes

Business deals
Consortium building
Relationship building
Collaboration between researchers
Distribution networks
Competitive landscape assessment

Success Stories

Navigation: About Us, Map, Success Stories, Resources, Market Insight, News and Events, Search

 Improving on Implants	 Canada's First Standard on Cellulosic Nanomaterials	 New Device Makes Pipe Monitoring Faster Than Ever	 Guelph Food Security Project Going Global
 A New Generation of Varnishes Underfoot	 Sensor Provides New Approach to Molecule Detection on Silicon Surface	 Waterloo Nanotech Device Tests for Bacteria	 NINT Explores Natural Solutions

NanoCanada's First Conference

1ST NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Converging on Nanomanufacturing

SEPTEMBER 25-26, 2017
MONTRÉAL, QC

INNOVATION 360

Thank you!

nanocanada.com

